23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the path of Righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;

Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;

Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me

all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Obituary

Deacon Jessie L. Bolden was born in Albany, Georgia in 1907.

He joined the Jordon Grove Baptist Church at an early age. He was baptized.

He came to Savannah in 1939 and in 1940 he was joined in holy matrimony to Mrs. Maggie Jackson.

He joined the Tremont Temple Baptist Church many years ago. He was later ordained as a deacon. He served faithfully until the Heavenly Father called him home.

He will be sadly missed by his wife, Mrs. Maggie Bolden; his only brother, Mr. Carl Bolden of Brooklyn, New York; two uncles, Rev. & Mrs. Johnny Bolden of Albany, Georgia and Mr. & Mrs. Sam Bolden of Charlotte, North Carolina; two nieces, Miss Renee Calhoun of Atlanta, Georgia and Miss Denise Calhoun of Albany, Georgia; one nephew, Mr. Robert Pluitt, Jr. and his wife, Mrs. Cora Lee Pluitt of Savannah, Georgia; and a host of grandnephews and nieces, cousins, and other relatives.

Thy Will Be Done

Jesus while our hearts are bleeding over the spoils that death has won we would at this solemn meeting calmly,

Say, thy will be done.

Thou did give and thou has taken.

Blessed Lord, thy will be done.

By the hand the doom was given

Thou hast taken but thine own,

Lord of Earth and God of Heaven

Ever more thy will be done.
